

In what is becoming a must-do Christmas tradition, our congregation and families from all over the area will gather to celebrate the beginning of this most blessed season by joining in a Carol Sing-Along at 4pm Saturday, December 9 at St. Paul's Chapel.

The Chapel will once again ring with the sounds of everyone's favorite Christmas carols as the whole community sings along with St. Paul's own Joyful Noyz band, special guest Debbie Norberto and other musicians.

The Sing-Alongs have packed the chapel for the last three years and a big turnout is expected again for this year's event. "We always choose carols that everyone is familiar with, and people really sing with gusto - we're hoping for a repeat this year," said Father Joe Campo. "It's an opportunity for people of all ages to come celebrate this season of joy and hope with song."

Admission is free. After the concert, Father Joe will lead a beautiful celebration of Evening Prayer, featuring harp music by Susan Abken. A hospitality hour with wine, hors d'oeuvres, coffee and desserts will follow.
